You are hereby notified that the Court has entered the following AMENDED order (amended to include full name of Michael J.R. as required by SCR 22.34(12)):

No. 2006XX800-D

In the Matter of Medical Incapacity Proceedings Against Michael J. Rielly: OLR v. Michael J. Rielly

On August 2, 2006, the Office of Lawyer Regulation (OLR) filed a copy of an order of commitment entered by the Walworth County Circuit Court finding Attorney Michael J. Rielly mentally ill under Wis. Stat. ch. 51. On August 7, 2006, pursuant to SCR 22.35, this court ordered Attorney Michael J. Rielly to show cause in writing why his license to practice law in Wisconsin should not be indefinitely suspended for reason of medical incapacity. On August 25, 2006, Attorney Michael J. Rielly filed a response and a letter from his attending physician. On August 31, 2006, the OLR filed a reply asserting that Attorney Michael J. Rielly has failed to satisfactorily show cause why his license should not be indefinitely suspended. We note that the letter submitted by Attorney Michael J. Rielly does not state that he is able to practice law and there is no evidence that he has been judicially declared no longer mentally ill under Wis. State ch. 512. Therefore,

IT IS ORDERED that Attorney Michael J. Rielly's license to practice law in Wisconsin is indefinitely suspended until further order of this court for reason of mental incapacity.

Clerk of Supreme Court
